CC42x96 Crowd Control Barricade

Revenue Generator:

Our crowd control barricade has many terrific features, including its ability to pay for itself through advertising. Large display panel can hold signs that can be updated on an event-by-event basis. Many event organizers sell advertising on these panels to create an additional form of advertising revenue at events.

Easy To Work With and Other Benefits:

Set-up and take-down is a breeze. Barricades interlock with each other to form a continuous wall. To stack for storage, feet twist flush.

- Superior strength and lightweight when compared to steel.
- Maintains a continuous enclosure and prevents access to secure areas.
- Can be set-up in various configurations.
- An auxiliary pin hole is provided to connect a third barricade for more configurations and added support. The auxiliary pin hole can also be used to hold a flag or anchor the barricade to the ground.
- Sign panel area (28.5" x 36").

Easy to stack and store.
